ASBL v. U.S. Small Business Administration, Case #: 3:04-cv-04250-SI

Filed: 10/06/04

Status: Won 06/30/05

Summary: The American Small Business League filed suit in U.S. District Court to force the Small Business Administration (SBA) to release a report it commissioned on the extent of fraud and abuse in federal contracts. The demand came less than a week after a study by the Center for Public Integrity revealed that the Pentagon had awarded more than $47 billion in contracts designated for small businesses to its biggest contractors - none of them small businesses. United States District Judge: Susan Illston

ASBL v. U.S. Small Business Administration, Case #: 3:05-cv-04789-MJJ

Filed: 11/22/05

Status: Won 08/11/06

Summary: The American Small Business League filed suit in U.S. District Court against the Small Business Administration. The suit was filed under the Freedom of Information Act after the SBA refused to release documents detailing hundreds of contracting protests filed against large firms falsely claiming to be small businesses. Prior to filing the case, ASBL attorneys struggled to obtain the documents over a period of eighteen months. The SBA surrendered the requested documents before the court could render a ruling. United States District Judge: Martin J. Jenkins
