Executive Order 13xxx-
Creating Labor-Management Forums to Improve Delivery of Government Services

Federal employees and their union representatives are an essential source of front-line ideas and information about the realities of delivering government services to the American people. A non-adversarial forum for managers, employees, and employees' union representatives to proactively discuss government operations will compliment the existing collective bargaining process and facilitate the design and implementation of the comprehensive changes necessary to increase the effectiveness and efficiency of Government. Labor-Management Forums will allow managers and employees to collaboratively champion change in the Federal Government so that agencies can deliver the highest quality services to the American people.

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States, including section 301 of title 3, United States Code, and in order to establish a cooperative and productive form of labor-management relations throughout the Executive Branch, it is hereby ordered:

Section 1: The National Council on Federal Labor Relations

b. Responsibilities and Functions

3. Members of the Council who are not otherwise officers or employees of the Federal Government shall serve in a representative capacity and shall not be considered special Government employees for any purpose.
Section 2: Implementation of Labor-Management Forums Throughout the Executive Branch

The head of each agency that is subject to the provisions of chapter 71 of title 5, United States Code, or any other authority permitting employees of such agency to select an exclusive representative, shall:

a. establish agency level labor-management forums by creating labor-management committees or councils at appropriate levels, or adapting existing councils or committees if such groups exist, to help change Government;

b. proactively involve employees and their union representatives as full partners with management representatives to identify problems and craft solutions to better serve the agency's customers and mission;

c. allow employees and their union representatives pre-decisional involvement on all workplace matters, without regard to whether those matters are negotiable subjects of bargaining under 5 U.S.C. § 7106, and provide adequate information on such matters expeditiously to union representatives where not prohibited by law.

d. evaluate and document, in consultation with union representatives and consistent with the spirit of this order and any further guidance provided by OPM, progress and improvements in employee satisfaction and organizational performance resulting from the labor-management forums.

4. explain the executive department’s or agency’s plan for devoting sufficient resources to provide annual reports to the Council pursuant to Section 2.d of this Order.

c. OPM shall review each executive department or agency implementation plan within 30 days of receipt to certify that the plan satisfies all requirements of this order.
